Rules. This regatta will be governed by the rules as defined in the current Racing Rules of Sailing(RRS) (2009 -2012).

Eligibility and entry. This racing series is open to all boats of the Lido 14 Class Association and guests of Lido 14 Fleet 2. Invitations have been made to the Capri 14.2, Multihulls and the Mdr Laser Fleets.

The entry fee Entry forms will be available the morning of the regatta and may be available on the SMWYC website. The fee to enter the regatta shall be $10.00 payable to SMWYC. The entry deadline is Sunday, January 25, 2009 at 1000 hours. Entries may be delivered the morning of the event or mailed to SMWYC at the address listed below.

Divisions. It is intended to have one start for all Lido fleets. If event participation warrants it, separate starts may be implemented for A & B fleets at the discretion of the race committee. In the event the Capri's and Lasers do enter in sufficient number to earn a start, at the race committee's discretion, the race committee shall establish an order of starts no later than 1030 hours.

Location. Racing will be held in the Outer Channel of Marina del Rey inside the "No Sail" lanes. Course charts will be available along with Sailing Instructions no later than 1000 hours the morning of the regatta. If conditions dictate, the Race Committee may hoist a "Come within Hail" signified with multiple sound signals and the hoisting of an L Flag, at which point the race committee may change the location of the racing venue.

Skipper's meeting. A skipper's meeting will be held at SMWYC at 1000 hours the morning of the regatta. The order of start will be announced and posted at such time.

The Start. Starts will be administered in accordance with Appendix S (formerly Appendix Q) of the RRS. The first start is scheduled for 12:00 noon.

Scoring. Scoring shall be by the Low Point System as defined in the RRS, except that all scores shall count (ie. No throw out at six races). Two races shall constitute a regatta.
