

The 2010 Lido 14 Fall Invitational

hosted by Fleet 7 and Mission Bay Yacht Club

The Champions:
Stu Robertson and
"Mountain Man" Mike Anctil

Fleet 7's Fall Invitational Regatta, held October 9th and 10th, was also the District I Championship series. There were 9 entries in the A fleet, and 6 entries in the B fleet. Regular participant Randy Carper couldn't compete because he sold his boat just one week before. (Word has it, however, that he purchased Mark Dearden's boat, #4466, right after the regatta, so we should be seeing him on the course again.)

Saturday had plenty of wind - blowing 12 steadily, and gusting to 15. This is the kind of wind that breaks Lidos, and sure enough there was one broken forestay, and one broken halyard. The races were long and challenging windward/leeward courses in the north end of the bay. Kelly Cantley managed to lead Kent Foster the wrong way round the first set of leeward gates, and the unwinding of that seemed to amuse some who saw it.

Yummy cake

Sunday's winds, on a course which had been moved south, closer to the Club, were much lighter at the start of racing, and weakened throughout the day. A nice respite for muscles tired from hiking out on Saturday, but the shiftier breeze was a bigger challenge for the skippers.

Birthday Boy
Roger Patterson
82 years young

Fleet 7 provided hamburgers for dinner on the club deck on Saturday, with Grant Williams as chief cook, and the traditional chili made by fleet members on Sunday. A birthday cake for Roger Patterson's 82nd birthday was a final surprise following the trophy presentation.

Stu Robertson, sailing with crew "Mountain Man Mike" Anctil, took first place in the A's, and will have his name engraved once again on the Robert Lesnick Perpetual Trophy. (His throw out? A first place. That tells the story of his regatta!) In second place was Kent Foster, with Pam Fairley. Walter Johnson, with crew Nikki Rambo, took third. In the B fleet, Roger and Anne Hinton took first place, with Roger Patterson and Kathy Dryden one point behind them for second place. Butch Michel and crew Amanda Kroeger took third place. Fleet captain Bill Kenney gave additional awards for furthest distance traveled (Butch), oldest participant (Roger Patterson) and youngest participant (Mike Anctil). Bill took the award for oldest hull in the regatta, with boat 1967.

B Fleet Winners
